9TH DR. MANI KAMERKAR
MEMORIAL SEMINAR

A One Day State Level Seminar

On

Maritime Heritage of India

Venue : St. Xavier's College (Autonomous),
5, Mahapalika Marg, Mumbai, Maharashtra 400 001

Date:- 1st August 2015 Time :- 9:00 am to 6:00 pm

The Department of Ancient Indian Culture at St. Xavier's College was established by Rev. Fr. Henry Heras in 1955. The department has always tried to keep the tradition of academic excellence by offering subjects like Archaeology, Museology, Conservation, Maritime Heritage, Archaeo-Tourism, Religion and Philosophy, Literature, Science and Technology and Art and Architecture. The Department is known for conducting activities outside the classroom like Field trips, Workshops, Seminars, Lectures, etc. in collaboration with MSB, CSMVS and Foreign Consulates. This is to give a practical experience to the students to enable them to comprehend the nuances of the subject. The Department holds a unique festival "VIVIDHA" and publishes the Department magazine RCA.

The Museum Society of Bombay was established in 1963, with a view to broaden the base of public interest in the Prince of Wales Museum of Western India, now known as The Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Vastu Sangrahalaya. It regularly organizes lectures by eminent art historians and archaeologists and arranges study tours to various sites and museum. It organizes art lectures and programmes for children.

Herat Institute of Indian History and Culture was founded in 1926 as the Indian Historical Research Institute by Fr. Henry Heras S. J. The Herat Institute strives to promote historical and cultural research in Indian History and Archaeology, Indian Art and Literature, Indian Religions and Cultures and training scholars and professors in the skills of Research Methodology and the re-construction of history.
