Reliance Industries Limited generously created the Reliance Dhirubhai MBA Fellowship Program to support Indian nationals who live in India and have financial need in your effort to obtain an MBA at Stanford Graduate School of Business (GSB). The Reliance Dhirubhai Fellows will receive financial support for tuition and associated fees for the two-year Stanford MBA Program (approximately U.S. $140,000). To maximize the Reliance Dhirubhai Fellows’ impact on India’s future, you are required to return to India within two years of your Stanford GSB graduation to work in a business, government, or nonprofit Indian organization with headquarters or significant operations in the country.

Reliance and Stanford GSB are dedicated to developing the next generation of leaders in India who are committed to the country’s human and socio-economic progress. Together we will change lives, change organizations, and change the world.

To learn more and to apply, please visit http://bit.ly/stanford-reliance2015

“Thanks to the Reliance Dhirubhai Fellowship, I am on my way to maximizing my impact in India’s development sector.”

Aditi Gupta, MBA 2014

“The MBA program is very transformative. It equipped me with the leadership skills necessary to create a better tomorrow for India. Stanford GSB has not only given me the ability to ‘be the change’ but also to drive it.”

Samder Singh Khangarot, MBA 2016
FELLOWSHIP PROCESS AND EVALUATION CRITERIA

1. Application Opens
   Application Deadline: 20 April 2015
   For more information about Stanford Graduate School of Business and the Reliance Dhirubhai Fellowship, please visit http://bit.ly/stanford-reliance2015

2. Application Due
   Application Due: 8 June 2015
   Application Opens 20 April 2015
   Application Due 8 June 2015
   Up to 50 Reliance Dhirubhai Fellowship finalists will be selected based on merit, commitment to developing India, and financial need.

3. Finalists Notified
   Finalists Notified: 2 July 2015
   Finalists will have enough time to complete your application to the Stanford MBA Program.

4. Classes Begin
   Classes Begin: September 2016
   Admits Notified: December 2015
   Classes Begin September 2016
   Graduation June 2018

5. By June 2020
   By June 2020
   Reliance Dhirubhai Fellows must return to India within two years of graduation to work for a minimum of two years for an India-based organization with headquarters or significant operations in the country.

ABOUT THE STANFORD MBA PROGRAM

Stanford Graduate School of Business creates an environment that transforms the brightest and most passionate people in the world and empowers students to reach their full potential. The Stanford MBA Program is a two-year, full-time general management program. You will be challenged by the rigor of the academic program. More important, you will learn about yourself and develop personal resources that will sustain you throughout your career and life. We will help you develop your vision and the substance required for achieving it.

Applicants* 7,355

Test Scores*
GMAT Range 550–790
GMAT Average 732
TOEFL Range 100–120
TOEFL Average 112

New Students*
42% Women
23% U.S. Minority
44% International

Advanced Degree Holders 19%
Undergraduate Major*
38% Engineering
14% Business
48% Humanities or Social Sciences

Work Experience* 4 YEARS AVERAGE
Organizations Represented 312
6% Biotech/Health Care
5% Cleantech/Energy/Environmental
20% Consulting
7% Consumer Products & Services
5% Entertainment/Media
10% Financial Services
15% Government/Military/Nonprofit
2% Manufacturing
15% Private Equity/Venture Capital
13% Technology
1% Other

*Class profile as of October 2014

For more information about Stanford Graduate School of Business and the Reliance Dhirubhai Fellowship, please visit http://bit.ly/stanford-reliance2015 change lives. change organizations. change the world.